Welcome to the YES Theatre 15th Anniversary season!

After the most remarkable 2023, envisioning this exciting year of theatre for our community was daunting. Last season saw record breaking attendance, continuous extended runs, education programs bursting at the seams, and we opened a theatre!...the beautiful Refettorio on Durham Street! Dreams came true in abundance!

This season, the priority is continuing to build our identity as a cultural cornerstone of Northern Ontario and to ensure that our theatres are truly reflective of our entire community.

Joe Papp, Founder of the Public Theatre and who is one of my great inspirations (and who I love to quote!) once said "I have always wanted to provide access to the best human endeavour to the greatest number of people. I believe that great art is for everyone".

We are creating a theatre that generates a profound sense of community. We want to celebrate the great artists of our region, and bring our work to the world. We strive to create meaningful moments of togetherness through this art form that has a unique and particular power to bring us closer to each other and to the sweet, vast, and complex experiences of being alive. Here in the theatre we will explore the universal emotions and relationships that make up our daily lives.

As I reflect on this milestone anniversary, I am deeply grateful to the thousands of supporters who have walked with us and given their energy, time, passion, ideas, voices and hands. I am grateful for the challenges... particularly the people who said "no", which only deepened my desire for "yes".

A life in the theatre is a great privilege. I look forward to welcoming Sudbury and the world to our stages this season!

With love and thanks,

ALESSANDRO COSTANTINI

Artistic & Managing Director, YES Theatre

FREELANDT CALDWELL REILLY LLP
CHARTERED PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANTS

Welcome to the 2024 Season at YES Theatre. It is with great pleasure and excitement that I extend a warm welcome to you as the newly appointed Chair of the Board for a dynamic group of artists within this brilliant theatre company. As a united board, we will continue to propel our theatre company to new heights, contributing not only to the cultural landscape of our community but also make a lasting impact on the lives of those we touch.

Last year proved to be a record-breaking year and I am thrilled to present this year's absolutely amazing lineup of performances and experiences.

Our season is a true testament to our commitment to excellence, creativity, and the boundless magic of the performing arts. We have curated a diverse array of productions that will captivate, inspire, and transport you to worlds both familiar and unexplored. From riveting dramas to a night on Broadway, a best-selling musical, nostalgic concert, to a side-splitting comedy, and from thought-provoking classics to cutting-edge contemporary works – our stage will be a canvas for storytelling at its finest!

YES is not merely a collection of talented individuals; it is a vibrant community bound together by a shared passion for the performing arts. As the leader of this esteemed board, I am fully committed to fostering an environment that thrives on creativity, innovation, and inclusivity.

I extend my deepest gratitude to our loyal patrons and supporters who have been the lifeblood of our growing theatre company. Your continued enthusiasm and love for the arts continue to inspire us to reach new heights with each passing season.

Together, let us make this season a spectacular chapter in the rich tapestry of YES Theatre's history. Mark your calendars, spread the word, and get ready to be swept away by the magic of live theatre in Sudbury.

Warmest regards,
STEPHANIE VENTURI

LETTERS FROM GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

On behalf of City Council, it is a pleasure to welcome you to the YES Theatre 15th anniversary season.

As Mayor of Greater Sudbury, I am extremely proud of the diversity, talent, and vision of our performing arts community.

Live theatre brings us together through shared stories and unique voices. It celebrates the moments that make us human and connects us to the places we call home. It can also challenge our assumptions and open us up to new ways of thinking, being, and relating to the world.

Whether it is a thoughtful re-examination of a classic tale, the beloved music of the Fab Four, or the iconic choreography of Chicago, there is something that resonates with every audience member. The Sudbury Theatre Centre and Refettorio are exceptional venues for staging this ambitious program.

Congratulations to the entire team at YES Theatre on this significant anniversary and all your accomplishments along the way.

PAUL LEFEBVRE

Mayor of Sudbury

What an incredible milestone to be celebrating together. This season is sure to captivate audiences from all walks of life, as the YES team continues to bring engaging, inspiring, and meaningful shows to the Sudbury community.

Arts and culture can bring many stories to life and allows us all to share in the emotions that are brought to the surface while we experience live theatrical events. YES Theatre specializes in producing remarkable performances that share tales that must be told, highlighting love, laughter, heartache, resilience and more.

I want to thank all the artists who bring their joy, passion, dedication, and professionalism to the stage during every performance. I want to acknowledge the audience members as well – without your support and love for theatre, these shows would not be possible! I also want to recognize the leadership and hard work that went into creating and securing a new space for the performing arts, the Refettorio. This unique space has been a wonderful addition to Sudbury's art community.

I'm sending a heartfelt congratulations to everyone at YES Theatre, the Sudbury Theatre Centre team, Board of Directors, and supporters on all your achievements in the past 15 years and to what is sure to be another fantastic upcoming season.
