Welcome to the YES Theatre 15th Anniversary season!

After the most remarkable 2023, envisioning this exciting year of theatre for our community was daunting. Last season saw record breaking attendance, continuous extended runs, education programs bursting at the seams, and we opened a theatre!...the beautiful Refettorio on Durham Street! Dreams came true in abundance!

This season, the priority is continuing to build our identity as a cultural cornerstone of Northern Ontario and to ensure that our theatres are truly reflective of our entire community.

Joe Papp, Founder of the Public Theatre and who is one of my great inspirations (and who I love to quote!) once said "I have always wanted to provide access to the best human endeavour to the greatest number of people. I believe that great art is for everyone".

We are creating a theatre that generates a profound sense of community. We want to celebrate the great artists of our region, and bring our work to the world. We strive to create meaningful moments of togetherness through this art form that has a unique and particular power to bring us closer to each other and to the sweet, vast, and complex experiences of being alive. Here in the theatre we will explore the universal emotions and relationships that make up our daily lives.

As I reflect on this milestone anniversary, I am deeply grateful to the thousands of supporters who have walked with us and given their energy, time, passion, ideas, voices and hands. I am grateful for the challenges... particularly the people who said "no", which only deepened my desire for "yes".

A life in the theatre is a great privilege. I look forward to welcoming Sudbury and the world to our stages this season!

With love and thanks,

As a united board, we will continue to propel our theatre company to new heights, contributing not only to the cultural landscape of our community but also make a lasting impact on the lives of those we touch.

Last year proved to be a record-breaking year and I am thrilled to present this year's absolutely amazing lineup of performances and experiences.

Our season is a true testament to our commitment to excellence, creativity, and the boundless magic of the performing arts. LETTERS FROM GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

On behalf of City Council, it is a pleasure to welcome you to the YES Theatre 15th anniversary season.

As Mayor of Greater Sudbury, I am extremely proud of the diversity, talent, and vision of our performing arts community.

Live theatre brings us together through shared stories and unique voices. It celebrates the moments that make us human and connects us to the places we call home. It can also challenge our assumptions and open us up to new ways of thinking, being, and relating to the world.

Whether it is a thoughtful re-examination of a classic tale, the beloved music of the Fab Four, or the iconic choreography of Chicago, there is something that resonates with every audience member. The Sudbury Theatre Centre and Refettorio are exceptional venues for staging this ambitious program.

Congratulations to the entire team at YES Theatre on this significant anniversary and all your accomplishments along the way.

PAUL LEFEBVRE
